WINE SELECTIONS

We strive to present a thoughtful and comprehensive list of wines from around the world to best suit your tastes. Small boutique wineries and world renowned labels find a place here. With a focus on the wines of Carneros, Napa, and Sonoma, we want to share with you not only the history and traditions of the region, but an exciting array of styles as well.

Many of the wines featured here practice sustainable, organic, or biodynamic farming methods.

Should your special occasion bring you to our restaurant prepared with wine of your own, we allow our guests to bring up to four bottles (750ml) for a $25 corkage fee per 750ml. However, we gladly waive one corkage fee for each bottle which you purchase from our list.

Thank you!

LEGENDARY VINEYARDS OF CARNEROS

Hyde Vineyard – “A Labor of Love”

Founded in 1979 by Larry Hyde, this 150 acre sustainably farmed vineyard is one of the finest “single vineyards” in California. Just due east of The Carneros Inn, Hyde Vineyard is planted to eight varietals based on the varied soil types and exposures within the vineyard. The meticulously farmed fruit is sought after by many famous winemakers, such as Paul Hobbs, Dave Ramey, and James Hall (Patz & Hall). It is also the source for wine label HdV - or Hyde de Villaine, A partnership between Larry Hyde and Aubert de Villaine, which produces exquisite wines under the guise of winemaker Stephane Vivier. The fruit and resultant wines never fail to capture the flavors of Carneros – smoky, intense Pinot Noir; spicy, Rhône-like Syrah; and fruit driven Chardonnays with great minerality.

Hudson Vineyard - “The Laughing Land”

In the late 1880’s, this was the Talcoa Vineyard; known by it’s inhabitants as “The Laughing Land.” These gently rolling, vine covered hills were purchased and replanted by Lee Hudson in 1981. Hudson Vineyards has contracts with 32 wineries, which proudly bear the name as a vineyard designate. Lee, with the assistance of legendary winemaker John Kongsgaard, also produces Chardonnay and Syrah under the Hudson Vineyards label.

Durell Vineyard - “His and Hers”

Located in the hills overlooking the town of Sonoma, Durell Vineyard at Sand Hill Ranch extends from the Southern end of the Sonoma Valley into the western portion of the cool Carneros region. This location provides afternoon breezes that encourage slow ripening, producing richer-flavored grapes with lots of minerality.

Ed Durell, a San Francisco food broker, acquired the land in 1977 with the intent to convert it to a cattle ranch. But in 1979 he began planting grapes instead. In 1980, after Ed hired Steve Hill to manage the ranch, the pair decided to focus exclusively on grapes; which they began selling to Sonoma County wineries in 1982.

Ed sold the property to Bill and Ellie Price in 1998 and they were subsequently bitten by the winemaking bug themselves. They each have their own wines made from Durell Vineyard grapes; Sand Hill is hers. The winemaker is Chateau St. Jean veteran Don Van Staaveren.
