■ NAPA VALLEY Have a Pinot weekend

After a day of tasting, spend the night at the new Carneros Inn, which was scheduled to open in November. Though the lodging tab for one of the 96 private guest cottages is high—$375 to $800 a night during the low season—you don't need to be a guest to have a meal at the inn's Boon Fly Café. Or explore the property's native flora and apple orchards. The Carneros Inn: 4048 Sonoma Hwy.; www.thecarnerosinn.com or (707) 299-4900.
